GETTING STARTED

Q1. Who is someone you perceive as a good teacher? Someone who can communicate and demonstrate things well?

Q2. Who are the significant people in your personal faith journey, who have helped teach you the way?

Q3. Share with each other times where you have been able to share your faith. How did it feel? What happened?

INTO THE WORD

Read Acts 8:26-40.

GOING DEEPER

Q4. What barriers (perceived or actual) prevent us from helping others understand the message of Jesus?

Q5. In what ways can we be more sensitive to the guiding of the Holy Spirit when it comes to reaching people with the gospel message?

Q6. Whose paths to faith are we paving? Who are those people in our lives that desperately need to know Jesus?

Q7. Consider how we can best explain the gospel message in ways that are relevant to people in their specific contexts.

Pray

Spend time praying for those people in our lives who don't yet know Jesus. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide and convict you this week to share things of faith with people in your influence. Consider how we best 'disciple' people rather than merely convert them, teaching them in the ways of Jesus as The Great Commission suggests.
