Sermon Based Studies

SUNDAY 29th April 2022

Letter to the Church

1 CORINTHIANS

These studies are designed to be explored after hearing the Sunday sermon and also to be accompanied by a time of prayer/sharing.

GETTING STARTED

Q1. As humans we all have our own strengths and weakness. Do you have any special qualities that make you unique? What are they? How do you use your strength to glorify Jesus in your life?

Q2. What divides you from others? Often conflict can arise when our views and opinions are different from others. How do you respond to conflict in a way that glorifies Jesus?

Q3. Language and our tone of voice are significantly important when dealing with others both personally and professionally. Sometimes we can often forget our use of language and tone of voice when dealing with complicated situations. How can we remind ourselves to respond in a way that reflects Christ? What can we do, when we don't get it right and say the wrong things?

INTO THE WORD

Read 1 CORINTHIANS

Q4. What does 1 Corinthians teach us about Jesus? What commandments can we learn from 1 Corinthians?

Q5. <sup>10</sup> 'I appeal to you, brothers and sisters in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another in what you say and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in mind and thought'.

What does this look like in your life? What does this look like in the life of the Church? Why is unity so important in our lives and in the life of the Church?

GOING DEEPER

Q6. Read 1 Corinthians 3:1-9

Paul speaks of infants in Christ compared to spiritual maturity, he aligns infancy with chasing selfish emotions and maturity when God is elevated above those things. How can we elevate God above our own ideas and opinions?

Q7. Why is this important, what would happen if we ‘don’t’ do this? What could happen if we ‘did’ do this as Gods church across our nation?

Pray

Heavenly father we ask that we would be united in one Faith in you. That we would elevate you above our own desires and in doing so be able to see others as you see them. Help us to use language that builds up or brothers and sisters so that the body of Christ may be strengthened for the sake of the Gospel. In Jesus name we pray, Amen.
