MOTHER'S DAY, SEASONS

EXODUS 15:20-21

SUNDAY 12 MAY 2024

GETTING STARTED

- If you were to graph your life, you would see there are times when you were close to God and times when you were further away during the many seasons of life. There are many factors that influence our faith journey. What factors affect your walk with God?
- What do you think forms a solid foundation in people's faith, so that no matter the season they are in, they always stay planted in their faith of God and of Jesus Christ?

INTO THE WORD

EXODUS 2:1-10

- Moses' sister Miriam plays a crucial role in the well-known history of Israel, but likewise she takes a humble role in working behind the scenes. In this season of life do you feel like you are a Moses or Miriam? A faith to lead through the hard seasons or a faith to lead from the sidelines or behind the scenes in serving others?

GOING DEEPER

EXODUS 15:20-21

- Miriam was a prophet and a leader (Micah 6:4), however we don't hear of her leadership up until this part of scripture. Often our service for God goes unseen, it's what takes place behind closed doors that shows Godly character. How do you honour God when no one is looking?

- Miriam's example of leadership was also found in worship, when was the last time you were so overwhelmed by God's love and grace that you led others in worship? (remember worship is not just singing, but living for God).
- This season, let's live by faith, leading our own relationship with Him behind closed doors, but also by leading others by living a life of worship to God.

PRAY TOGETHER AS A GROUP

Loving Father, we thank You that in all seasons you are good. We ask that we would have the faith of Miriam to be able to lead those You have gifted us influence over. Help us to honour You with our time, our energy, both in the unseen moments as well as the times of victory, of joy, and of celebration. In all seasons you are good, thank You, in Jesus' name for who You are, Amen.
